Yesterday, the opening of the exhibition of GPHG winners was celebrated in a festive atmosphere.

CHRONEXT CEO and Co-Founder Philipp Man invited director of the GPHG Carine Maillard on the occasion of the 20th Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève and to present this year's winning watches in the recently opened CHRONEXT Lounge in the heart of Paris, in Rue Marbeuf 31, next to Champs-Élysées.

They welcomed over 60 other passionate watch collectors and enthusiasts from business, culture and media. The opening event of the exhibition was accompanied by champagne from the Maison Perrier-Jouët.

The GPHG, often referred to as the Oscars of the watch world, honors the highlights of contemporary watchmaking every year with the help of an international jury. After being exhibited in St. Petersburg, Geneva, and then at Dubai Watch Week, CHRONEXT is honored to present the 18 award winners of 2021 in its brand-new lounge in Paris now.
